Dear Mrs. Manley:

I have your letter this morning, and as I told you earlier, the trip out here isn't a bad one, although it isn't as good as it could be, had I been able to pair you with either the Birmingham Black Barons, the Kansas City Monarchs or the Cincinnati Clowns. However, I hope that you will be satisfied with this trip, and return in late July for a trip that will realize you a goodly sum.

I will be looking forward to receiving your line-up and player numbers...but, the thing that I really need is a good cut or mat of "Mule" Suttles. I need this particular item as I would like to use a Suttles cut on placards for the Wrigley Field Game. Incidentally, I am going to use a three team double-header, with your club, the Memphis Red Sox (who are always popular here in Chicago) and a third club yet to be selected. Terms and whatnot will be worked out shortly, and as Alex Pompey, will tell you, they are always fair.

Regarding lodgings, I will get a line on the best places to stop in each town, and will get this information to you. According to the schedule you are at Baltimore next Sunday... and if you will advise through the week, can call you on the telephone this coming Sunday morning, at any time you designate, and give you all last minute details. By the way, Dr. J. B. Martin just called me advising receipt of a letter from you, concerning your suggestions on an eastern jaunt for the American Giants, and asking his okay on the Wrigley Field thing...which of course is "natural". About the eastern item, you will hear from Dr. Martin, and in the case of the Wrigley Field presentation, we all work together out here. Awaiting word and wishing you the best with your team, I am,
